

REPEATED DENIAL BY MEXICAN AUTHORITIES

NEVERTHELESS IT IS CONTENDED DIAZ IS MORALLY BEHIND PEACE OVERTURES.

Chihuahua's Report That Rebels Are Still Active Verified via Douglas Sources.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The activity of the self-appointed peace committee, which has been endeavoring to reach a basis of settlement of the revolutionary movement in Mexico is apparently highly displeasing to the Mexican government. A sign of this resentment is in the receipt by the Mexican embassy today of a cablegram from Creel, minister for foreign affairs, denying that the government had anything to do with the appointment of such a commission. The minister says Diaz has not appointed a peace commission.

CHIHUAHUA REPORTS

Chihuahua, Dec. 6.—J. C. Shepard, a mining agent, who has lived all his life in this state, left this morning accompanied by two armed guides, conveying specie for the payment of wages to miners at Bustillos. Friends informed him it would be unwise to attempt to take the money to the mines. Shepard stated that he felt no fear of the revolutionists, but a number of bandits had enrolled themselves under the insurrectos' banner and from them he expected no mercy. Passengers arriving from the west tonight confirm the stories of the insurrectos' strength. Madero's strength is unknown, but the influx of arms and ammunition continues. The travelers pretend not to know the sentiment in other parts of the country, but every bit of unpartisan testimony this week shows that the revolution in this state is of unusual proportions and big money is behind it.

So far there have been three encounters in this state. The fight here last Sunday may be called a draw, but at San Andreas three weeks ago and Pandernales last week the insurrectos were undoubtedly the victors.

DIAZ INTERESTED.

Douglas, Arizona, Dec. 6.—The surprising information is received that Diaz himself has given a written order to Governor Sanchez of Chihuahua, authorizing him to support the commission sent to treat with the rebels.

Attorney Jesus Maria Gandara of Chihuahua, who has been mentioned in Mexico City, explained the situation in Chihuahua. Diaz gave Gandara a letter to Sanchez, giving his moral support to the peace commission idea.

Gandara returned to Chihuahua with the letter in which Eduardo Gonzalez is also mentioned, because he broached the plan to Gandara before the latter's departure for Mexico City. Sanchez is heading the commission, according to this information, with Gandara and Gonzalez following. Serving also are Dr. Lewis de la Garza, Attorney Leonardo Munoz Salas, Avila Gonzalez, Carlos Gandara and N. Reyes.

An odd situation occurred when the special train bearing this commission arrived outside of the town of Guerrero and found the rebels attacking the place. The mission of the commission was stated to the rebel leader, who very courteously replied, "Please excuse me until we finish this job. The train was held while the attack proceeded and later the rebels again asked extension of time. Then came the notice of the arrival of the federal troops, following which the peace commission's special conference was ended.

The arrival in Chihuahua of General Juan A. Hernandez, commanding the federal troops, was of more than passing interest. Hernandez led a campaign against the Yaqui Indians under Chief Cajeme, at Anil Indian camp, where they were fortified under the direction of a Frenchman. Here 3,000 Indians routed Hernandez's army of 2,000 men. Later Cajeme surrendered, making offers of peace, and left with Martinez to give up his tribe, but was killed on the way. Hernandez married Mercedes Guerrero of Alamos, reported at one time to be the fiancée of Vice-President Corral, then governor of Sonora.

STORIES ABOUT REBELS.

Douglas, Ariz., Dec. 6.—A band of rebels two days ago visited a ranch near Madera owned by an American whose brother is here, and took 110 horses. They gave the proprietor a receipt payable on presentation to the "minister of war" for Madero. They would not tell where the Maderistas are camped. Two cattle buyers coming out of Mexico today say the rebels have held up several Americans and taken their cartridges, leaving guns and pistols, treating them courteously and explaining that the rebels have plenty of guns, but want high power cartridges. They never rob them of money.

Americans here who live half the time in Sonora or Chihuahua say it is unnecessary and unwise to ask the Mexican government for arms, as this is liable to draw the fire of the rebels on the towns and mining camps otherwise unmolested. Word was passed from the rebels for the Americans to remain strictly neutral, and not join the volunteer forces organized to defend the towns.

The loyalists in Culiacan, Sonora, have called the attention of the government to the great quantities of cartridges selling in that city, it being said that some orders are for as many as a thousand at one consignment, which it is believed are being bought for other districts, as passengers tonight from Hermosillo and Guaymas, both in Sonora, report tranquillity in those cities.

At Monterey cases marked "Looking Glasses," and consigned to Vidal Garza, Perez, were found to contain carbines. Perez was arrested at Gonzalez. Matias Escamilla is also suspected.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Manhattan, Nev., Dec. 6.—The charred remains of Patrick Farrel, a miner, were found today in the smoking ruins of his cabin at Round Mountain, a mining camp near here. The cause of the fire is unknown.

TRADE TOUR IS SUCCESS

Rose Special Visits A. & C. Country

ARE WARMLY WELCOMED

Over Sixty Representative Phoenixians Spend Day in Six Towns and Return Tired, But Happy, Over the Result of Trip.

History was made yesterday for Phoenix and the Arizona & California country when the "Rose Special," with over sixty representative business men of this city, visited Parker, Bouse, Vicksburg, Salome, Wenden and Wickenburg. And history will repeat itself sometime within a few months, for the success which crowned the excursion of yesterday will probably result in this trip becoming an annual feature and may ultimately bring about the organization of similar parties which will visit other towns in proximity to Phoenix.

It was 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning when the "Rose Special" in charge of Conductor J. C. Graves, one of the oldest men in point of service on the line, and the man who conducted President McKinley's train from Phoenix to Congress Junction and return, and the train of President Taft from this city to Ash Fork, pulled into Parker. With Engineer E. Landon and Fireman Chas. Snodgrass in the cab, brakeman G. L. Culp everywhere he was needed and Pullman Conductor H. G. Elchorn looking after the personal interests of the travelers, the run had been made without incident.

Superintendent H. C. Story accompanied the train in his private car attached to the regular Pullman coaches and with him was George Tisdale, superintendent of bridges and buildings. Both Superintendent Story and Superintendent Tisdale, like Conductor Graves, had been on the McKinley and Taft trains and each exercised the same watchfulness yesterday over the welfare of the excursionists as though a president were aboard.

Breakfast was ready when the train arrived and the party was escorted to the tables by Secretary R. C. Sauley, of the recently organized Parker board of trade. Following a most satisfying breakfast and a few remarks by Secretary Harry Welch and H. J. McClung, the party was taken in carriages to the Colorado Indian reservation where the buildings were inspected and much valuable information was received.

After three hours of pleasant sight-seeing and interchange of ideas, during which roses were distributed like leaves from a forest, the entire party once more entrained. All the ladies in the town, together with a liberal sprinkling of business men, accepted the invitation of Superintendent Story and General Agent W. S. Goldsworthy, to make the trip over the Parker bridge to the California side.

The newspaper men and several others were permitted to mount the roof of Superintendent Story's private car, and were given a most excellent view of the river and the mountains in the distance.

When the Phoenix trade tourists rolled out of their berths about the first thing that happened was the presentation to each resident of a copy of "The Arizona Telegram," a little newspaper printed on rose colored paper in the interest of the "Rose Special," which contained besides much interesting matter, a complete list of those aboard and the houses they represented. The impression was not hard to create that "The Arizona Telegram" had been printed aboard the train and that James G. Simpson, the editor, and Secretary Harry Welch, and a dozen contributors had spent the entire night in bringing it out. The little paper made a decided hit and thousands of copies were distributed along the line at every stop and will make a very pretty souvenir of the trip.

One of the prettiest souvenirs distributed yesterday was a 1911 calendar of the Home Builders of Phoenix, and C. J. McElroy was about the busiest man aboard the train while the supply lasted.

Farewell was said to Parker after the entire party had voted Parkerites as good people as the best on earth and the "Rose Special" spend on its way to Bouse, where dinner was in waiting. A full account of the trip will be given tomorrow.

TO GET OUT NEW FLAG.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, a well-known suffragist, is getting out some new suffrage flags. Those she has bear but four stars and now, since Washington has become a suffragist state, a fifth must be added. Mrs. Belmont's blue flags bearing the words "votes for women" are conspicuous at all the New York suffrage meetings. With Mrs. Belmont in this country working for votes for women and her daughter, the duchess of Marlborough in England, working for the betterment of the poor classes of women, both mother and daughter are adding very materially to the good of the world.

REALISM.

That actress sheds real tears at every performance. "Yes, she is moved by her deep sympathy for the manager's distress when he gives up real money!"—Washington Star.

Where to Buy
Nationally
Advertised Goods in Phoenix

THIS PAGE is for the information of those who prefer to buy advertised goods, knowing them invariably to be the best. It is a list showing which stores in Phoenix carry the articles nationally advertised in newspapers, magazines, trade publications, street cars, billboards, etc. Articles that the manufacturer himself knows to be so good that he invests his reputation and thousands—and in many instances hundreds of thousands—of dollars to tell you about. This page will appear twice a week hereafter. It would be wise, however, to clip it for reference. When you read the magazines compare this list, and note the large number of nationally advertised articles, manufactured in all parts of the world, that can be bought right here in this modern, progressive city of ours. It is well worth while.
